Headmaster's Corner

It is the first week of school in the New Year; we are off and running. The students are tackling challenges and taking risks, and the teachers are praising and encouraging perseverance in effort and trying new strategies. All the students and the HM have chosen a virtue to grow in this year. Ask your students what virtue they chose, and what their plan is to grow in that virtue.

The virtue I chose is courage: courage to always speak the truth with respect, to confront reality, to do what is right no matter the cost, and to commit to getting better. If you see me practicing courage, let me know; if you see me failing to do so, hold me accountable.

As Martin Luther King, Jr. said, "The time is always right to do what is right." May I, you, and all of us have the courage right now to do what is right!
