Club.

We will be discussing Stanford Professor Carol Dweck's bestselling book Mindset: The New Psychology of Success.

Many attended our parent workshop, but now you have the chance to delve deeper into the mystery of success and follow Dweck's guidance to seek input from others as we collectively look towards how this knowledge can help the young minds that are in our care.

If you do not already have a copy of the book, please make sure to secure a copy and read it beforehand. The book's ISBN is 978-0345472328. There are 7 copies for sale in the office for $15.

Please RSVP by Friday, March 1, 2019, so that we may organize the participants into small discussion groups.

Light refreshments will be served, and don't forget to bring your book!

We like to think of our champions and idols as superheroes who were born different from us. We don't like to think of them as relatively ordinary people who made themselves extraordinary. – Carol Dweck

Spring Sports for 5th Graders

TAX CREDIT DRIVE - KEEP THEM COMING!

Thank you to those families who have already participated in our 2018 Arizona Public School Tax Credit drive! GO GOLDEN EAGLES!!

Headmaster's Corner

Remember to ask your students what virtue they have chosen on which they wish to improve, and encourage them to stick to the plan to grow in that virtue.

All of our students (and any of our parents) are welcome to ask me how my effort to increase in personal courage is going. Sometimes I think what really has to increase is my willingness to love others, even if it hurts. Our courage increases when we remember how much we love and how much we should love those important people in our lives, especially, and all of our fellow human beings. Love and courage. I need more of it and from where I sit, it looks like the world needs more of it, too!

In a few weeks we celebrate Presidents' Day, which is a day we honor George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, two men of outstanding courage. May they inspire us and may their great example continue to guide us in the path of goodness, truth, and freedom!
