Lockout Last Week - Did You Get the Text?

Last week Archway Glendale conducted a modified lockdown due to a coyote on the field. For 5 minutes, students stayed inside and went about school as usual. At approximately 9:30 a text message was sent to inform families. Many Archway Glendale families did not receive the text because they had not opted in to receive text messages.

We encourage families to opt in to receive text messages from Archway Glendale. If you would like to opt-in to receive texts from Archway Glendale, please text a Y or Yes to 67587. Please call the school office at 623.866.4710 if you have any questions.

Parent Education Night - December 5th

This time of year can be stressful for many parents and students. On December 5th, Archway Glendale will host a Parent Education Night from 6 to 7. The focus will be on Stress and Coping in Students. Lauren Katz, Great Hearts Director of School Counseling, will be on campus to talk about what stress is and what it looks like during different developmental stages. Find out what is "typical" for students, and how stress can affect a student's daily life. The goal will be to increase knowledge about stress and coping, provide insight into symptoms, and build skills to support students in managing their feelings.

Headmaster's Corner

As I am sure you are aware by now the thematic goal for our school this year is

We choose JOY!

There are three defining objectives to the goal of choosing joy:

1. Positivity
2. Gratitude
3. Social Connections

Since tomorrow is Thanksgiving, let's focus on gratitude. To practice gratitude, each member of the faculty and staff has committed to writing down three good things each day and to start every meeting at school by sharing one thing for which we are truly grateful. We invite you to practice writing three good things and sharing with those you love the things for which you are most grateful!

Gratitude is the attitude that leads to beatitude.

We hope you have a beautiful Thanksgiving, sharing with your family and friends the spirit of joy and gratefulness!
