The Statue of Liberty

The Statue of Liberty is an American symbol of freedom. It is a monument that stands 305 feet tall! The statue is on Liberty Island in the New York harbor. It is the statue of a woman holding a tablet in one hand and a torch in the other. The torch represents freedom and liberty, and is covered in real gold! The tablet has a special date written on it, July 4, 1776. It's America's birthday! The Statue of Liberty has welcomed many people to the United States. It is possible to go up the stairs inside the statue, all the way to the crown on her head.
