Backyard Habitat

A habitat is a natural home or environment where an animal lives. Different plants and animals can share a habitat. A habitat must provide three basic needs for any animal to survive: food, water, and shelter.

Choose a window in your house through which you think you might see a animal. If you are able, you can sit in your backyard and do this as well. Pick your favorite animal you observed and answer the questions.

Draw a picture of your animal and their habitat.

What do you think the animal uses for shelter?

What do you think the animal eats?

Where can your animal get water?
