READ-A-THON

Dress-up Day Guidelines

1. Student costumes must represent a literacy/historical figure that is part of the Archway Glendale curriculum, or a character from a book in the library.
2. Student costumes need to follow the same guidelines as the uniform policy. Reference page 44 of the family handbook.
3. Items in the costume should not have any logos, brand names, and/or pop culture on them.
4. Students may wear non-uniform shoes (such as sandals), provided they are appropriate for your character and safe for outdoor play.
5. Small props are allowed but should be put away during class.
6. Students who do not follow the costume guidelines may be sent home or may be asked to change into the school uniform.
7. Students are not required to dress up.
8. Students should be careful not to wear any costume that could be offensive to others.
9. Costumes need to be approved by the homeroom teacher no later than October 23rd.
