Headmaster Corner

The long and challenging educational year from COVID is actually winding down. The silver lining in the COVID cloud is that, more than ever, we are reminded of what a really good place to be is Archway Classical Academy, Glendale! Perfect, no. Really Good, yes.

Parents, families, students, staff, and teachers have persevered with grateful hearts. Have we disagreed about masks/not masks, quarantines, vaccines, social distancing? You betcha, but we have not allowed it to divide our school community as it has divided our nation. That is because the people in this community love each other, not always perfectly, but truly love each other.

I have felt loved and supported by all of you everyday I have been privileged to be your founding headmaster. I have marveled at the solid, supportive, generous, grateful families who send their students to Archway Glendale and partner with teachers in forming hearts and minds in virtue and truth. I have marveled at the caring, committed, cooperative, and tremendously capable teachers and staff surrounding me and invariably making me look good.

I am nearing 50 years in the educational business. I have served alongside some great teachers. I have led some really good schools. Nothing compares with our school. It is the best I know of. I say it with no pride. To quote Lou Gehrig, "I'm the luckiest man in the world!"

I miss all of you already. I am counting on all of you to make this school even better, starting today (Nunc Coepi) and into the future. And I am counting on your prayers as I travel East of Eden to serve another Great Hearts community. I believe I am being called to do it so I must go where I am called.

I go with you in my heart.

Thank you, dear friends, from the bottom of my heart, thank you!
