

Dress-Up Day Guidelines

1. Your costume must be a literary/historical figure that is part of the Archway Glendale curriculum, or a character from a book in the library.
2. Your costume needs to follow the same length guidelines as our uniform policy. No skinny jeans.
3. Items in your costume should not have any logos, brand names, and/or pop culture on them.
4. You may wear non-uniform shoes (such as sandals), provided that they are appropriate for your character.
5. No masks or face paint are permitted.
6. Small props are allowed but should be put away during class.
7. Students who do not follow the costume guidelines may be sent home.
8. You are not required to dress-up.
9. Costumes need to be cleared with your homeroom teacher by October 20TH.
10. Students should be careful not to wear any costume that could be offensive to others
