Honoring All Who Served

Veteran's Day History

Today is Veteran's Day, a day where veterans that have served the U.S. in the past and continue to serve today, are remembered and honored.

Yesterday, Mrs. DeStefano shared these facts you may not have known with the students at Archway Glendale:

- A veteran is someone who served in one of the armed forces—the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.
- Veterans Day is different than Memorial Day. On Memorial Day, those that have given their lives for the U.S. are remembered. Whereas Veterans Day also celebrates veterans that are still living.
- Veteran's Day is always on November 11th. World War I officially ended on June 28, 1919 at the Treaty of Versailles, but the fighting stopped before that when the Allies and Germany put into affect an armistice on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month—11:00 on 11/11.

- Canada, Australia, and Great Britain have a similar holiday honoring veterans on November 11th also.

Mrs. DeStefano encouraged students to take a moment to thank a veteran, if you know one, for their service to the U.S! Thank them for their bravery to risk their own life to protect and serve.
