School Safety Message From Mrs. DeStefano

Our prayers and hearts go out to the community of Uvalde, Texas in light of the horrific tragedy that occurred this week. School safety is of the utmost importance to Archway Glendale. This year we have worked closely with the Peoria Police Department to optimize our school security. We have several projects planned over the coming months to better secure our facility. With Great Hearts, we annually review our safety plan and train our faculty and staff in crisis procedures. We are also committed to having a full time counselor and proactive measures to support mental health.

Please reach out to our Admin team with any specific questions you might have.

Headmaster Corner

Dear Archway Glendale Families,

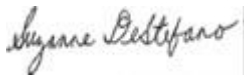

Tomorrow, the last day of the school year, is a day filled with both cheers and tears. There is an excitement to begin summer vacation and grow towards a new grade with new adventures. There is a sense of accomplishment and pride when looking back on all that was achieved and created over the year. There is also a sadness with saying good-bye to teachers, friends, and school for the summer.

The kindergarten and fifth grade students have Hawaiian-themed parties planned for tomorrow. The theme is perfect as it incorporates the Hawaiian word "aloha," meaning both hello and good-bye.

So tomorrow, I say Aloha! Good-bye to an impactful year! Good-bye for now friends! Hello to summer vacation and family time! Hello to new adventures, new friends, new classes, new teachers, and new things to learn!

I will be at school all summer. If you ever want to stop by to chat or share an idea, you are always welcome and encouraged to do so.

Aloha,
