Headmaster Corner

Dear Archway Glendale Families,

I hope you had a wonderful Fall Break and a fruitful parent-teacher conference. We are ready to dive into the second quarter! I am eagerly anticipating this next quarter as we celebrate old traditions: the Readathon, the first round of the Bard Competition, kindergarten churning homemade butter for the Thanksgiving Feast, first grade making Stone Soup, second grade's Greek Olympics, third grade's Roman Celebration, fourth grade knighting students, and fifth grade simulating the conditions under which Michelangelo painted the Sistine Chapel.

We are excited to commence a new tradition this year—Reading Under the Stars. On Saturday, October 22nd, our PSO is hosting our first Reading Under the Stars event from 6 pm to 9 pm on the football field. The entrance “fee” is to bring a used book to swap with another at the book table. Families are encouraged to bring blankets, chairs, flashlights, snacks, and plenty of books. This is a free event to attend, and you are welcome to arrive and depart at your convenience. We want families to feel welcome to mingle and get to know each other. As we instill a life-long love of books in our scholars, we plan to celebrate the joy, wonder, and excitement of reading at this event.

With excitement for a beautiful quarter ahead of us,
